

Oberlin, Ohio, June 13, 1909.

Dear Selden:-

Will you please pardon me for acting mean to you. I really, truly do not mean to act so, if I can possibly help it. It is rather hard for me to be cheerful. It was quite a while ago, but I still feel it that I received sad news from home and tonight I was thinking of it. Please forgive me for anything unkind I have done or acted because I am sorry for anything

[Faint, illegible handwriting on the reverse side of the paper]

Mr. C. S. S. Selden.
287 W. College St.
Oberlin, Ohio.

OBERLIN, OHIO.

After 10 days, return to

of that kind,
I feel it my duty to send this for I wish to do the right thing.
Yours truly,
Ruth.

