This someone here with nobody to bother me or no one to play with, or talk to, except when I am upstairs talking to mamma.
I will be awfully glad when you come because I want to learn some good manners, and you need not be afraid of teaching me too much. I have not eaten a meal on the dining room table yet, and pretty nearly forgot the thing.
I wish you would write to me once a year or so, couldn't you?
Say, did you know I think that I have the best water of any body that lives here? Well, I do think so.
You certainly get me a good

Dear Ellen:-
Boston, Mass,
May 6, 1886.

Now that Mary has a position in Sacramento, wouldn't it be nice if you could get one in Seattle, then we, (the rest of us) would surely move onto a claim. But what wouldn't we? But won't Mary & Willie be awfully far from us now?
Willie ought to grace Mary every Sunday, oughtn't he? I just imagined the distance between the two cities, on the map, it is less than thirty miles.
When are you coming home? I can hardly wait until that time.

Example in the way of saving money,
I do not spend anywheres near as much money on myself as I used to.

I told did I not, that I was working in a Y 10 Grape-Nuts contest to get $100. I have sent in my list of words numbering 10,018.
Isn't that a lot. One boy in O'berlin, only got 3800 words so that I will win over him surely enough. Don't you wish that I would get that $100. It would buy and pay for a lot of things.

Well, I do not want to bother you longer with my scribbling so, Good-bye from your loving brother, Curly.

Mama wants me to say that she received your check, thank you.
