

FEATURE STORIES
FOR SUNDAY NEWSPAPERS
MANUSCRIPTS REVIEWED AND CRITICISED
SUBJECTS SUGGESTED

National Press Bureau
109 FORDHAM DRIVE
BUFFALO, N. Y.

EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT
WILLIAM A. HEACOCK
MANAGING EDITOR

May 25, 1923.

Mr. Wm. H. Belden,
Calgary, Alta., Can.

Dear Mr. Belden:

It is a pleasure to acknowledge the receipt of your inquiry, which arrived this morning; and under separate cover I will send full particulars, as you request, concerning the advertisement in which you have become interested.

You are in a good field for newspaper correspondence, Mr. Belden, and I believe you will like the work, as it involves no canvassing - no waiting on customers - no drudgery.

By close application, you should earn anywhere from $25 to $100 a week, the amount depending naturally on the quantity and quality of your contributions; and even if you can give only spare time to this vocation it should enable you to add from $15 to $25 a week to your present income.

By duplicating or syndicating news and feature stories to many newspapers, a newspaper correspondent may earn all the way up to $200 a week, and I have earned even more. The plan I followed is explained in a very interesting booklet I am sending to you in this evening's mail.

Before closing, I want to thank you for your inquiry. If it leads eventually to a fortunate turning point in your life we shall both have cause to be very much pleased.

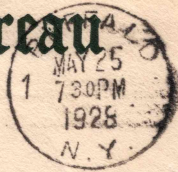

With best wishes, and trusting this may be the beginning of a long period of pleasant personal relations, I am

Yours sincerely,

Wm A. Heacock
Managing Editor

National Press Bureau

BUFFALO, N. Y.

Mr. Wm. H. Belden,

Mount Royal College,

Calgary, Alta., Canada.

Successfully entering the park.

When a fellow needs a few more points.

The tower the place - and the fellow.

~~Knowledge~~ ^{When one} knows

the conditions that will assist

~~to~~ always feel at ease.

and still they would be well explained.

Chickadee month.

The month of October.

~~The~~ ~~appearance~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~month~~

Remaining for the month

the first of October

598 Anderson Ave. N.Y.

Tell me if you can