Dear Willi,

I fully expected
to come for Sunday
until it was too late to notify you. It has been a beautiful
Saturday and Sunday and I have been
with you in spirit at any rate. I expect to go to Dover in a few days - at least
that is my present intention. I enjoyed your short call on Monday more than
I can say. Love

to your wife whom I find to be charming
and to the young people.
I think now that I will write to you
again from Dover
Yours as ever
Susan.
