Dear Sister Bolden

The ladies of Great Britain have requested me to ask the ladies of America to join them in prayer on the occasion referred to in the enclosed circular. It ought to have a lady Secretary too of I. M. U. — Can you see at this late hour, get some notice of the call in your Presby papers for next issue. You Bro J. T. Gracey

PS. I have written 25 of the official ladies of the several Societies similar letters to this. I have sent to some other papers, but not to Presby.
