Dear Beldon: I do not know where I left off with you. I send you some slips with themes. Signify your preference, and add others, and specify persons to whom to assign, or other method of presentation - Send other slips to other members not of officeary -

2 - I found that the Mexican Gospel of Luke in Mexican exist in Ms; needing revision, and a suitable revisor could be had; I asked In Committee from Mex. unfair and ordered the whole work done and 1000 copies printed, at my charges, with order to draw on me at sight for the cost. It has occurred to me that the Union might like to make this a matter of its own.

And if they raise $100 I will so transfer it to their name. If each officer will beg $10 - or lecture for it we will have the money, And then let the Am. Reber do: go on its slow way with the 'Gutrie New Test', if it will - They have never communicated with me about it. Meanwhile Luke goes on, and will go on. Let me have your judgment and pleasure on the subject. I have been in revival meetings twice a day nearly all winter and now have Francis Murphy twice a day in my church
- a cyclone. Yrs. J. T. Gracey
