General Business Agent.

No. 1 Somerset St., Boston, Oct. 16th 1890

Rev. W. H. Belden,
Bristol,
Conn.

Dear Sir:—

Yours of Oct. 15th is at hand. In response to your request I send you our "Historical Sketches". You will notice that the "Sketches" are not bound together into one book, but come in a set of seven. I do not know just what the "Golden Rule" has published, but suppose these Sketches are the ones referred to. I enclose a list of our Publications giving prices.

I make no charge for this set, as the "Sketches" are given free to ministers in charge of churches contrib-ating to the A. B. C. L. M. The price to others is 35-cs. a set as you will see on consulting the list of publications,

Yours truly,

Charles E. Swett,

R.
