Dear Mr. Belden -

The day after writing you last Oct. and the second day after my return from the Chicago Fair I was taken sick with typhoid pneumonia, but I pulled through and another year has about rolled on, and I am reminded that your insurance is coming due - I enclose draft which you may date, sign, and make payable to the insurance agent and I will honor same - I hope

Dear Mr. Beedew

Yours of the 20th inst. rec'd.

I am glad that I was in hope to keep you - I do not wish you to mortgage your policy for what I have advanced - Let it rest as it is - Was sorry to hear of the sickness of your daughter Mary.
Our Mary is the picture of health, and weighs 159 pounds and only seventeen years old. She returns to Dobbs Ferry to school next week - She is a lovely Christian girl, and in all ways a comfort and blessing to us. Miss Vaie sails from Liverpool Oct 6th - We have greatly missed her during the summer at our country home.

The Second Church continues to grow. Dr. Robinson is doing a good work, and is a favorite throughout the city - They have increased the eldership to nine and I am the only "stick" among them - Yours Truly
