

My dear Mr Belden,

Our open
wagon (without top) and the horse I told you about yesterday are not in use today - so if Mr Thompson still is seeking a chance ride to Deerfield - he may take this horse and drive himself.

There is no danger about the stumbling of this horse, only annoyance.

One of the claws

of the Deerfield Church
- Mr Charles More -
lives about four miles up the road - he can find the house readily
by inquiring.

My mother says that the usual summer evening congregation is about twenty five people!

Hoping that we can help a little in this good work - I remain

yours sincerely

Mary Bromak
