are taken and I know that all will renew their subscription for that one - but doubt whether we can get a club of ten necessary to reduce the price to 1.50. I enclose postal and give to add to your daily cares by asking for a speedy answer, but just a penciled yes or no, will tell me whether you wish to have the names again - I know that even that takes time & strength.

We have rejoiced in a visit from Dr. Robt. who came very unexpectedly on Friday last and chanced to come on the very day of our meeting - so she spoke to the ladies delightfully - she is most fascinating in manner I think & we were all charmed with her.
Have I written you that we have free seats at church now? The three churches are having Union Endeavor meetings now in which there is much interest. Good bye for today. Will.

Mrs Peers. the Roots & Murrells all ask for you often and I was glad to be able to report recent advices.

Today I am writing a business letter - which is to ask, if you would like to have the names of Subscribers to the Missionary Review sent to you as last year for your Club or would you rather not be troubled by it?
We are just about to canvass the Society to see what Magazines
