

Bridgeton, N. J., Oct 5 1888

Dear Bro. Belden :-

I saw Mr.

Beadle this morning in reference to a union missionary meeting for our Presbyterian Churches. He thinks Sunday night would be better than afternoon, and would be glad to enter into any arrangements. Speech of Princeton would stir us up, and we could give him a large congregation if our other churches should come together Sunday evening. It is too late in the week for next Sunday; but might we not plan a meeting for Oct 14th? I suggest this or something that seems preferable.

Yours truly
S. W. B.
