

Puebl.
April 23.

My dear Mr. Pelsaen.

Your letter of Saturday was a beautiful Sunday sermon for us all and we read and re-read it with wondering love that you could have learned so much.

We also enjoyed Mr. Byatts letter very much, which I will return, and I am glad you found

Mrs Richardson's happy for I feared it would be discouraging - and rather hesitated to send it only I did not feel at liberty to do otherwise.

I met Mr and Mrs Perry in Hartford the other day who enquired most affectionately about you.
and Mr Perry said
he should write you.
The spring is really here - which I know must rejoice you as it does us - and Miss Root comes know this creek which is another cause for rejoicing - I would give anything in the world if prayer could seem as real to me as it does to you. I do not understand how it can seem as hot hope to sometimes through your help.

My dears are a little better just now and I hope that you and we are all praying earnestly that you may be.

With constant love to Miss Belden and the children - I am -

Very sincerely yours
Clara L. Brown
