Dear Brother Belden,

Your kind words of sympathy are just at hand & I thank you most sincerely for them. As these expressions come every day, and almost every mail, I seem to want to account for them, & can account for them only by supposing a Divine fountain of sympathy, and so I turn to the Word, and read of a "God of Consolation", and my grief is not greater than I can bear, although my heart is very heavy, & my home is very empty -

I hope to be in Clifton soon, & will try to look you up -

With kindest regards to
Mrs. B. & yourself,

Very Sincerely,

F. D. Phinley.
