

Terryville, Ct., Nov. 13, 1890.

My dear brother Belden:-

A telegram, received yesterday, informs me of the death of my brother's wife, and I, with Mrs. Arms, will go down to the funeral, returning late on Saturday evening, reaching home about 9:30 p.m. Therefore I shall be obliged to drive over on Sunday morning. And probably shall return home on Sunday evening, after service. As you do not keep a horse, that may not be the most convenient plan for you. If you prefer to come Saturday, and stay with us till Monday, we shall enjoy very much the visit. Should that plan meet your approval, please drop us a line. My daughter will be at home, and we shall reach home at a seasonable hour on Saturday. Hope we shall weather favorable for the Sabbath. If you have hymns ready, please send them, that the choir may practise them on Saturday evening at their rehearsal.

I am always yours in Christ,

W. F. Arms.

Terryville, Ct., Nov. 10, 1890.

My dear brother Belden:-

I send you the hymns for next Sabbath, two for each half of the day. Three. If you need but two, drop out the first one in each division. Morning, --114---701--1092. Evening.--105---296---1105.

My progeam of services is on inside cover of pulpit hymn book. Services begin at 10:45; bell rings at 10:30. Drive to my house, and use my stable. God be with you. Love to all from all. Yours truly, W. F. Arms.
