Jan. 8m 1895.

Dear Sir:

Kindly indicate the date and place of the annual or general meeting for 1895 of the International Missionary Association, adding any change which may have taken place in the list of officers, or any other information of interest to our readers.

Yours truly,

THE EDITORS OF THE OUTLOOK.

Mr. Secretary, not "See'z"

Please answer this, and give them any enlargement you think they will suffer. I see you quoted in Church Miss. Intelligencer on J. M. U. Pearson wrote one of the best articles on last Session for Chinese Recorder. Bro. Foster might see it, but I dare not risk loan of it to go to address Inter-Seminary at

Colgate University, and want a hundred circulars. How soon can we get them?

Yours

Gracey

Dear Belden; -

The plates for cover came by Saturday - Phinney was getting the map-plate made in Boston, but it did not ~~come~~ prove correct, when it too arrived on Sat. He ordered it 3 inches "wide" which they supposed meant - width of page. He should have given more specific directions. He then determined to wait till we got the plate made correctly, but we waited Monday out & then ordered some printed with this joke of a map on them that we thought might be sent to foreign parts. The Home ones could go later. The map-plate will be here I suppose in a day or two. The copy you sent made less than 5 pages, so we found it necessary to

Ed. to 4 pages. This makes the page crowded, or rather a little too wide for the length. At least it has that look in proof - I am not proud of the job - but vanity & vexation of spirit ~~go~~ with the printer's business - and all printers hereabouts are busy at this season with Spring adv: printing and seem to act as if it were a favor to do anything for one in 60 days -
