Dear Belden; -

The plates for cover came by Saturday - Phinney was getting the map-plate made in Boston, but it did not ~~come~~ prove correct, when it too arrived on Sat. He ordered it 3 inches "wide" which they supposed meant - width of page. He should have given more specific directions. He then determined to wait till we got the plate made correctly, but we waited Monday out & then ordered some printed with this joke of a map on them that we thought might be sent to foreign parts. The Home ones could go later. The map-plate will be here I suppose in a day or two. The copy you sent made less than 5 pages, so we found it necessary to edit to 4 pages. This makes the page crowded, or rather a little too wide for the length. At least it has that look in proof - I am not proud of the job - but vanity & vexation of spirit ~~go~~ with the printers business - and all printers hereabouts are busy at this season with Spring adv: printing and seem to act as if it were a favor to do anything for one in 60 days -
