

Passaic Sept. 19 1855

Dear Brother Bledin,

Perhaps I ought to drop a note to you to say that I am now at home and ready for anything you may want or Com-municate. I have had, of course, a dyspeptic trip, but you know how laborious, in its way, such a thing is. As I only reached home yesterday I have not been settled to work. I do not know how you propose to come at a moment for Edward, or as accord as to recommendations, I only wish to say that I am at your disposal whenever you care to move, or however

I am

Yours most truly
