

THE PRESBYTERIAN UNION OF NEW YORK.

May 2/90

Rev W. H. Belden

My dear Sir:-

Please find herewith tickets for the coming meeting of the Presbyterian Union.
We trust it will be both convenient for, and agreeable to you to attend this meeting.

Very sincerely,

A. J. Davis

SECRETARY,
26 BROADWAY.

The Presbyterian Union Of New York.

NEW YORK, April 30th, 1890.

DEAR SIR :

The Executive Committee has the pleasure of announcing that the last social meeting of the Union until October will occur on the evening of Monday, May 12th, 1890, at the Assembly Rooms of the Metropolitan Opera House, corner of Broadway and Thirty-ninth Street, at eight o'clock.

TOPIC FOR DISCUSSION :

“THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY—WHAT IT IS ; ITS RELATION TO THE CHURCH ; THE SCOPE AND LIMITS OF ITS POWERS.”

The speakers will be : the Rev. E. D. Morris, D.D., LL.D., of Cincinnati, Rev. S. J. Nichols, D.D., LL.D., of St. Louis, and others.

A choice programme of vocal and instrumental music is being arranged for this occasion, and it is intended to make it a feature of our closing meeting.

Extra tickets for the occasion, for the use of ladies, and for gentlemen not eligible for membership, are now ready, and may be obtained, at One Dollar each, from the following gentlemen, viz.: Mr. Scott Foster, 395 Canal Street, and Mr. Richard T. Davies, Secretary, 26 Broadway. It is necessary that tickets should be applied for on or before Saturday, May 10th.

Yours truly,

SCOTT FOSTER,
Chairman of Executive Committee.

Officers of the Presbyterian Union 1890.
