

such harmony is unusual & it is only as Christians have the spirit of Christ that this can be united on this most important subject. Dinner -

Well, Joe was so sweet and when at dinner, may be I look too much on the dark side, I suppose Evangelina started for H. this evening. I think will go the last of the week. I suppose. How are the Durins. I often feel anxious about them. Hope they will not be worn out by the time they are through. Edith Berry who has been at Mary's for a couple of weeks is a physical coach. I understand she is very smart, has gotten prices and many thanks, it is going on Post & I don't know what all that will all amount to. It would be a crime, I consider for her to deny, & she is not obliged to look for her support. Thank you very much for the papers she all read & enjoyed. Can you find any time for your illustrating? I interested in all your improvements I'm glad you have gotten through with your clearing up, I am glad you are going there in quite a number of them and any pieces among them I thought you knitting I'd send, as I will soon get at that work. I cannot cut without paining my hand I do hope you have gotten over your Cold. Geo. H. has an awful time with his Navy from, is dock, with a specialist. You often we have spoken of you dear, when we have been out riding & wishing you could be with us, The mountains here never looked so beautiful as they have since I came back. I don't wonder some of the Ancients thought they were man & God on the hills, I will <sup>your eyes</sup> left up into the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord

I have they out, you Contact - I trust. They should or pay you This is a lovely day, I hope you will find it so, I am very well think you are out riding both with Mary & the folks here much of the time, This reminds me as I will probably not be with you again in a year or so - if you wish to return my chain do so and don't let I would allow you something for it - I think it was in about as good condition as when I got or if you wish to use it keep it I had another I would want it different, The sides are too low which exposes our discs & perhaps to us to get them soiled,
