

Monday after noon.
Dear Mamma,

We have just received your letter and are glad you are having such a pleasant time.

Marcia is up here.
I think Mrs. Draper is going on Wednesday.

At the Junior this Sunday Mrs. Draper gave us a very interesting address.
Erin had. She had a little ^(that more than you have) idle that she showed us that was about an ^{when at home, isn't it?} inch long and papered to a very small point at the top.

We got Mrs. Ford's name this morning.

Won't it be fun for Selden at Green's pond? I wish I was there.

Are Evangelina and her brother in Lyford now?

The Foster Hose company had a parade the other day and they had a drill in front of the Sanitarium.

We went down to see it and took Willie and afterwards Papa came down.

who dressed us for the children's meeting. She is lovely. She was born in India where her parents were missionaries and she is now. She was quite witty. Mr. and Mrs. Clark of the A. B. C. F. M. are here. I have seen them both but not to speak to. We did not go up to speak to them because we thought they would not remember us.

How do you like Aunt Clara? Do Charles and Selden agree better than they did last summer? Does Lina look like herself? I am anxious to see her when I begin to feel love some for you I think how you are ^{gifting} rested.

And I think Mary and I will learn quite a little by having to have the responsibility of all the work and do it.
Do quite enjoy it too.

I met Mrs. Mix to-day ^{coming} up this way as I was going down to dinner. She had a baby in her arms and Abbie was walking along and Howard was wheeling the carriage with the baby that they had when they were up here. The baby Mrs. Mix had I think was in short clothes. I did not know they had another baby did you? I wonder how they are getting along.

Mrs. Davis just told me to tell you she sends her love and hopes you got there safely.
She said she wondered if you got Selden a hat.

Mary and I had a letter from Millie yesterday. She says she writes to Miss Barton every day. Had you ever hear of such a thing? But they were very good friends.
I don't know what to do with out Selden to kiss.

Lots and lots of love,
from your affectionate daughter, Penny-winkles, Ellie

Monday morning.
P. S. Mr. Reid and his wife are also here.

You know the Harbants were here before you left. Well, the Palmer's are here now. You know three years ago when Marcia was here Helen Palmer was her best friend. You know we knew Edith Brewster but never Helen. Now we know Helen; I think she is an awfully fine minister's daughter.

The Rev. John H. Elliot spoke last evening in the Tabernacle.
It was the anniversary of the
