Dr. J. T. Gracy

Dear Brother:

I recall
your request last year to assist you by sending you the names and addresses of missionaries of whatever denomination.

I am going to send you ^{names} a long list of missionaries, some of which I think you may not have on your list. I do it at the request of Mrs. J. A. Goodrich whose address is No. 3 Spring St. Auburn N.Y. She is Sec. of the Woman's Board of the Disciples Church, and expects to attend some of the Sessions of the coming meeting of the S. M. U. She is a very cultured lady and I think might be of use in some of the ladies meetings. The missionaries of their church now in this country are as follows:

Rev. G. B. Wharton, Lexington, Ky,

„ F. E. Meigs, ^{Coming} Holding, Mo.

Miss Mary Gabriel, No. 1 Pearl Place, Buffalo, N. Y.

Miss Ada Boyd, Leinton, Ill.

Rev. B. Mitchell &

Mrs. Sarah V. Mitchell

Address of Mr. Hill Greenplace 64th St. Englewood, Ill.

These I think are recently returned from China India and Japan. I will give you also the names of two of the representative men of their church who were formerly missionaries in America.

Dr. K. Aybill, 292 Ash St.
Indianapolis, Ind.

J. W. Jenkins, West Cleveland, ^{Ohio} I know you would like to extend an invitation to these friends of an obscure denomination, and thought it very doubtful if they were all known to you.

I received one of the circulars from Dr. Bolden but have misplaced it and have not his address so send them to you. I have not yet accepted the invitation, but would like very much to attend.

Now I justify myself in going for the good I can get out of it, though I can be of no service? I don't just like being a sponge; but want very much to be at Clifton during a part of the Session at least. I wish you all success in your very difficult part of the work, and send kindest regards to Mrs. Gracey and yourself.

Very truly yours
Mary A. Priest
