Dear Br Belden

Your note of Apr. 20th with kind invitation to attend the I. M. U. came duly to hand. Thank you, for thus kindly remembering me, & be assured of my sympathy & prayer on your behalf on account of bodily infirmity. Although denth your flesh is weak, your spirit is very willing & that is after all a great thing ~~and~~ for when we are weak the Lord very often makes use of our weakness to do great things for Him. May he do so with you, that you may be full of joy & rejoicing before Him. As regards my attending the I. M. U. I am not sure yet whether I can do so or not, it depending much on the state of my health (wh^{ch} at present is not very good) & also whether I can get off. If I do come, do not expect^a ^{comparatively} ignorant man, me, but allow ^{me} in the presence of so many able & learned men to be ^{an} listener.

My great object would be the cultivation of Christian fellowship, to w^{ch} I may add the great boon for temporal & spiritual recreation w^{ch} my visits to Clifton Springs have afforded me.
The recollections of C. S. are always delightful & refreshing to me; it seems to me of all places a place where the honour of the Lord is sought & that therefore He delights to honour it.

May it continue to be a veritable Bethel to all that visit it, whether well or sick, & may it long prosper to the praise & glory of our Lord —

With kindest regards Yours in the Lord Jesus

A. Hartmann
