

Your enclosing M's in this Dept. Mail.
Also Miss B's with "regrets." Tell her I am very sorry, but will simply postpone the visit till she can come.
Write just what day & time to expect you & by what R.R. & bring some things to wash & sew.

Mrs. Browning died after a few day's illness - pneumonia with pleuraey - & is to be buried tomorrow.
It is sad, sad, - the three last days
& the poor doctor -

Most of the invalids seem to be doing well - in our neighborhood in spite of the weather. Mrs. Wye is better than I ever saw her.
There are several letters here that can wait till you come, (nothing important) and I may not write again either, so don't think strange, if you don't hear.
Er. has been there days, you know.

Chester, Ohio a letter from Aunty & Mar. 19, 1907 Grandma today to
