

My dear Miss Brew,

I got your letter this afternoon just after I mailed mine home & was so glad to hear from you.

I don't care very much for any of "just Clouds" recollections except the well known one with the bad. What was that one from your school? That might be "on a jolly".

It is so glad you feel hopeful about the & I do want to feel so. How is Kavanaugh?

I went down to do some shopping today & I don't care much for anything starts. I can't get a decent bunch to save me. They ask as much as $2.00 for one I read by & I don't like the looks of it at all. It is one of these cheap (?) painted affairs & I much prefer the plain ones. I think I could have one sent from Berlin for less than I'd have to pay for one here & be much better satisfied. I also had about as bad luck trying to get a couch cover & I didn't buy it. They you might get me one. Perhaps the carriers they have in Egypt for it is so cheap. They don't sell ready made cot sheets, there at all & as I to have a cot, it would be lots better not to get the double sheets, I think I forgot to look at blankets, I don't want to have Miss Moss have to keep me after Sat. because I think she prefers to sleep alone, so I may have to get some thing, but I have no more sheets, I think, in the house. Can you ever write me your suggestions, your sacred things, things from the life of I don't know what to do to, if you don't think best, or ask her, I have no more thing, I hope if you (as sacred things) the fence of net will be answering them, I wish I had you here to help me get settled.

Yes we went to Lakeside. I don't think either Mamma or I was nearly sick whether we were glad or sorry that we had gone. I've often think that will I don't know how much I realize his good qualities, for I always aim afraid to say any thing & I always run down medical thing whenever you know; but I really do think he must make a fine doctor, & you can get the best kind from the bush, if you want it.

I was glad to see him, however, I was only sorry you weren't along

Thursday morning. It is the hour after chapel & no one seems to be coming to our grammar class, I know there is at least one student in it. The students have the easiest way of doing here; they just come when they get ready. I have had two classes recite today & we go along beautifully but of course the real world hasn't learned yet. I got their papers of white & we corrected them together in class. The classes are so small, yet any way that they don't bother me at all. It seems quite not to be bothered - I suppose of course, I should be

There is a girl who wants to take eloquent & came for me to sign the card yesterday. I asked Dr. Bradley what to do about it & he said we should wait. As it is an election we don't need to give the course unless there are as many as forty students who will it. If there turn out to be that many, I think we have to give it; but Dr. Bradley says he can help me, I think the revenue coach is up, not take the class hurriedly, altho' he says he doesn't pretend to know a great deal about it. I told him I hadn't had any voice either when he asked me how much eloquence I had had.

Dr. Bradley is a minister of of a church at Upper Alton. He is here during the week & goes home Tuesday & stays till Monday.
There is a Mrs. Bradley, but the family live in Upper Alton & Miss Moore says she didn't met Mrs. Bradley last year til Commencement time; for Mrs.

Bradley is something of an invalid, I think.

The Music teachers don't come to the college, and the art teacher, tho' she had her studies in the college buildings has as her salary wharf her student's pay. The Art teacher Miss Sherman, may come with her mother to room at Mrs. Cannon's; but I guess she's not yet yet, because her work doesn't begin promptly.

I have just met a very pretty & rather well looking appearing girl who graduated from here last year & is to be absent as a graduate student at Bryn Mawr this year, a fact which surprised me a little.

I'm not 'dead gone' on this block but I like her very well & we had got acquainted very quickly indeed. I think I told you that about her history.

I must stop to mail this. What can you do about the Camp, pin-net, sheets & yellow cases & couch cover? Please don't think I'm after you in too much hurry. ^{The} Bradley brought me the note letter this morning. I think it was. Thank you for it. I wish I had time to write more.

Very lovingly,

Wm. W.

I'm going to have the Paul I wish you'd send it with the other books.
