

one or grandy, what made it if you had a quick slip to them under it. Have you?
 If you haven't, I will send you one, or the goods for it.
 I meant to tell you, that was not correct that the books for that waist were should have been reversed the right side top, but they were all after thought, as the things didn't look well with the rest I had to do you with.

I got my money late by Feb. 12; but I sent Mellic $55.00 Liberty Baire to pay a debt to Mrs. Harriet on account of Dr. Robert D. D. my record all withdrawn to Mrs. D.
 I got that money & sent Mellic. For the same have the money now & it will be much more for Mellic to take it & pay in school & etc.

Dear Phil.

My Japs are writing some sentences on the board & I have Edger Mas. Hutton's had to write say I wish you were here so that I might talk to you instead of writing & so you could see my new notes I had a half hour this morning after J. P. meeting & I put it in planting my hand. My most grateful thanks from your Mrs. Brown - I didn't expect to give her a party than I kept myself so good as a letter & I feel much about repeating again: unexpected generosity. It is so seldom I see a people that ought to be glad of the opportunities and if you were
