Dear Mrs. Belden,

I think
the paper covered books
I gave Willie to-day
will be best for him.
I am more successful
in progressing pupils
in this book, than
in the older Instruction book, & it holds
their interest better.

My old copy of the Mother's Etudes I sold
two wks. ago. But you may have this book
for half price $1.50 & it will be better for

Willie to use than an old book that is falling apart, &
boys are not as careful as girls I find.

Willie is very bright, & will do nicely, as soon as he gets well
started. Penjary teaching him.

Sincerely yours,
A. E. Leonard,

Walter Reed
