Dear Fannie

We were very sorry to hear, through a friend who had been spending a few days in St. North, that you had been sick. I hope that it was nothing serious, and that you are yourself again, vigorous and cheery as ever; I can hardly picture you as even a temporary invalid, still I shall be relieved to hear that you are well.

I did not intend that Mother should hear of it as the lady said that you were better, but one of the children told her without knowing that I thought it would be better not to.

This is funny

We are all in our usual health, I do not see that Mother has failed in strength or hearing during the year and a half that she has been away. She went to church yesterday and heard the singing and a little of the sermon.

Anna writes such pleasant letters from Anvity, and seems so happy in her work.

Give my love to Mrs. Scranton, I wish I could see her again.

Hoping to have a line from you soon, I am

Your loving sister

HOTEL JERMYRN,
SCRANTON, PA.

F. S. GODFREY.

Tuesday 25th

11:15 a.m.

My dearest Edmund
I have been home at the Hotel just half an hour, have gotten my finery
off and will now write a word to you
The weather still continues beautiful
When I arrived at Scranton, I walked over to Lou's office

thinking possibly he might go to the other train to meet me. After waiting a little and he did not come I went back to station and then again to his office and after 2:00 he came in and found me reclining on his lounge. He was very cordial as usual and escorted me over to hotel - and left me to go to office hours

Because of my room was laid out all my things to wear in the evening - and I myself down for a nap, for somehow I felt miserable heavy. I walked to market at 4:45 so as to get ready for lunch who was home at 5:00. Although I stay where I looked at my watch it was exactly 4:14 8

I have felt very much refreshed ever since
"Miss Smith fastened my dress and was very kind. She got through about 6 o'clock and I went down to dinner. While I was eating and gazing about at the beautiful dining room and dreaming of Serenity - past and present and thinking how nice Coleridge's are who should I see

but John White
As soon as he saw me he came over to speak to me a moment as he was leaving after supper
It was just 7 o'clock when I got back to my room so I got my gloves and cetera to go down stairs as the carriage was ordered for 7:15-

Tom thought he would be back here before I left but he was detained and it was nearly 7:30 when I rode off alone in a double carriage. Later I saw Scott, Harriet and Ellen at brunch - and next after the evening. Met Ella Platt and she was very cordial - Oh how old she looks - had a very pleasant visit with many matters ever from young Mr. Forbes, more over he looks so well - Mrs. La Fayette - he looks so well - Mrs. La Fayette - Jennie & Harry seem strongly - Mary and Mrs. Stuyvesant and last of the people shown All the school boys were most cordial and lovely - Joe Allyn's and his wife. Grand. Remond and Lennie. Will & Louie you the rest as you have no time to read long letters.

I am very glad I could be at this wedding and glad to be here at this Hotel

Everything has been just lovely excepting the absence of my dear Edmund and Francine and Gertrude Please and this to everyone God night to you all Marie

En route to Easton

November 11th 1904

My dear Gemma

I am trying to have something to say in a telegram to you but there is nothing and there is nothing to do but to quietly await developments - as far as I can see - the credit goes if I cannot do it will make the way for us and if we are to go I know God can open

the way - I should even now give up the thought of going if I did not think of dear Fangeline - She will never be the same to me or any of us after our parting and now she seems still to be my little Fangeline. When I was in Chester I realized some enough that there would be no

be a great change
She is perfectly in love with George and the whole family and I am glad she is, and I am going to urge her engagement as much as I can.

I think George is a fine young man and I like Mrs. Harvey

very much - There is nothing I or any body can do about her living with them and so I must think it is all for the best, Oh I long long to talk with you and Mother
There is so much to say and mine is so unsatisfactory

If there is anything by telegraph I will do so.
By all means go to Houston and to Pastor for if you get the chance I see not one hopeful ray of our going to Texas - but if you come North I will be with you (D D) I wish we could have been in Texas to month ago - I think we will be going in the next time of year that is - if we go Would it now be better to wait until January or February I think if we wait until we get settled in N. Y. - it will be still harder to get off - but now I think we might as well all pass our souls in patience.

We must take the Case to the Great Council and leave it there
It is easy enough for Him to manage to get us where He wants us - Peace

I lean into you with peace I find with you let not your heart be troubled. Oh I have so many many causes for thankfulness and enjoyment

Your loving sister Mary -
