

Darling Lady
& Darling Picters.

I don't know how I forgot to post you a letter yesterday. We had a lovely drive I got here believing ^{there} some I forgot just where. Rosie was here & had cleaned the garage - a beautiful job I wanted so much to have her stay while I was away & do that very job. But neither were mentioned it to her as I had decided to give her the time off. To my mind Rosie is a treasure. Now she's washed & Bluma. You know we could come for just the day every time. I suppose I will might earn enough to do some sort of release that much. At five I need a debit telephone. There Rud - the money is away to say we shall get Ruth's report this the late. She ought not to have to be asked. If you're pulling her name of with it in just going to home to have a prebe for that beauty dress.

& get a trip - please as that for the wedding.

I'll try to get your sheets etc off tomorrow.
I think so many loving thoughts of you all & believe you are so generous in your thoughts with all your things They are such treasures it is a pleasure to remember them.
I feel distressed at you all being so tired. Did not all right, ate a good dinner last night - I hope it is the same with Mrs Lady & shall be anxious to hear.

By the way - I cannot have two weeks at the Wedding time unless it is be-from what seems I suppose as maybe it's better come back in anyway. The sooner you can know the true the better & it can be comminical to do so.

There is some one will be his reaction the other will be his to take at that time. However I and believe you ought to be examined this month & since, but not the time you can not celebrate very before she goes to

You know tho' it afterwards may now I could have made up that handsome piece of black & white striped silk I have cut & don't think I'd use it for this -
You know how they handsome piece of black silk lace trim bordered in silver & that handsome piece of black spangle which would be more easy but I don't know how to use them & I'd like this dress of yours & it would be so long to make

Very sorry to remark that the French Co did not find my Mother grose play necessary to their continuing in business. I ~~don't~~ believe I'll ever sell any thing unless I have an agent.

My dentish tie is here twenty dollars - biggest dentish tie I've ever considered!

God bless the bargain to you. My regards to Andy & my big love to you

This envelope is a little peculiar but I'm so recommunal. I could have ^{altered it to} make it more accurate but it would further have spoiled its artistic appeal. Its sort of historic & built up
at different periods.
Believe me.
