Aug. 20th 1891.

My dear Mamma,

I went to Belvedere yesterday with Grandma and Aunt Ellen and Uncle Joe. Aunt Ellen put flowers on Grandpa's grave and Louisa Saraki's grave and some others that I don't remember. We play croquet lots, and Evangeline and Gertrude brought their dolls up here and their baby carriage so we played

Dolls quite a good deal
We play up in the attic.
Are you going to send my clothes pretty soon? I don't you do I wish you would the rest of my handkerchiefs is it - I only have three more I wish you would write, or some one. I haven't had a letter since I came away. I miss you all so much. How is Minnie now? I send lots of love to all at home. Evangeline and Gertrude have just come up. I suppose Mary reads to papa now.
I do wish she would write.

From your loving
Ellen
