

Ithaca. May 1st '93

for breakfast, we did have fresh cucumbers & young onions. so I'll try to keep up under my losses at Clifton Springs.

I was exceedingly glad that I came when I did, for Aunt Sarah & Mary waited over a train — at some inconvenience — purposely to see me. & Aunty was so glad that I came. I went with her to the new grave, & also did some errands for her. I am so glad that I came, just when I did.
It was just right.

With lots of love to all, & many thanks to each of you for your kindness & attentions, I am as ever

From my sister, daughter, Aunty, & Auntie

My dear Mother
My dear Ellie & William
You will all be pleased to learn of Foot's & my safe arrival here at home. Charles & Father were at the Station to meet us, & the children joy at meeting each other, was one of the prettiest things I ever saw — It was our meeting of lovers; all the way home in the electric car they had their arms about each others necks, & Charles didn't even think to kiss me, till some time in the afternoon. Frotie hardly took her eyes off Charles all through dinner. - - + - - -

they only had two or three
"spots" during the afternoon.

Father says Charles had not been naughty for one moment since he came, & Mary & Mother say about the same thing. But they
- it must be remembered, all Grandparents & "Auntie".

evening for Elmira. Mary will probably be away for a week or two days. Emily is really lovely in her affections so composed, so thoughtful of others, & cheerful. I am so surprised that she can give up this way, for she cared so much, in spite of says, as a Mother would care for a child. The Judd was only ill from Tuesday till Thursday Morning. Paralysis. He suffered very little, & no one thought of death, till two hours before he was gone.

I would say for Trilliana's benefit, that though I came to this family where he expected me to undergo the sad lack of Strawberry pie; - which I didn't lose - I was comforted by elegant ice cream. & while I was refused fresh Strawberry

I neglected to mention the traces I shot on the way here, especially when we stopped at "Genovy". If only I could have bottled them, they would have been scarce.
Over.

At Geneva a trunk was charged along with all the others.
