

Oxford
Nov 18, 1894

My dear Ellie

I regret exceedingly that I am obliged to state to you that Mother & your girls left here yesterday afternoon for Ipswich, Maryon, & Clifton Springs.
I suppose they will go on Wed. to Maryon. They are to stay at Mrs. Maria [?] I am very bad indeed not to have made any reply to you about your most kind & loving offer of clothes.
I thought it best to wait till Mother could ask them on for she'd know about what I hope for Frottie, & if yours are about the same, I mean particularly the cloaks, I think you had better give them to some one else, though I think I'd like very much to have the white cloak, & will you let Mother look at the other clothes please.

I will ask Joe again about the shirts, the collar are too big for any of this seed of the family.
I have mislaid your letter & can't help answer it without seeing it. At any rate now I must go, as I am full of work today. I may see you some time after Xmas though I have no pleasure at all.

With love & love to Aunt Sam to you see Love from aft. Rosie Constance.

Constance
Tuesday