

Dear Mrs. Belden,

I am not able to come to you and have no one to send, therefore will your daughters call at Mrs. Ballou's Broad St., where I now am tomorrow after school, or if you are down to meeting perhaps you will call yourself. I may leave next week if I am no better, and not see you again before I go, and I would be glad to see you again. Your cordial smaking me at home, will be pleasantly remembered.

Yours sincerely,

Olivia M. Ford.
