Mr. J. A. Davis

Dear Sir

Your article on Mr. H. Belden was very interesting but much longer than you were to make it. We cut it down somewhat. We could not undertake to make 200 galley proofs but if 200 copies, more or less, of the Observer containing the article are desired they can be had marked, wrapped ready for mailing, at 4 cents a Copy. If the addresses are furnished we will write them upon the wrappers stamp each copy with the words "marked copy" and pay postage on same.

This will save Mrs Belden
a cent a copy.

Your truly
