

February 24, 1824—George William Curtis—August 31, 1892.

The Princess.

A dramatization of Tennyson's poem presented by the pupils of the
Staten Island Academy
Saturday evening, February 23, 1907, 8.15.

Assisted by Mr. Mortimer Howard, tenor, and Mrs. Henry E. Holt, soprano.

The Princess.

By Alfred Tennyson.

CAST.

The Princess Ida,	- - - - -	Helen Redgrave
Lady Psyche	} Instructors in the University	- - - - - Genevieve Watson
Lady Blanche		- - - - - Ida Wilcox
Melissa, a daughter of Lady Blanche,	- - - - -	Louise Sillcox
Violet, a pupil,	- - - - -	Helen Hasbrouck
The Prince,	- - - - -	Park White
Florian, his friend and a brother of Psyche,	- - - - -	Henry Willcox
Cyril, friend of the Prince,	- - - - -	Stephen Davenport
Gama, King, and father of Ida,	- - - - -	Gerald Baldwin
Ipsé, a nobleman,	- - - - -	Henry Mecke
Pupils, Alma Timolat, Minnie Badenhausen, Elizabeth Baldwin, Dorothy Munns, Mary Humphrey, Josephine Benitz, Lonie Warth, Rosie Sonntag, Beatrice Voorhis, Julia Ganss, Phyllis King, Edna King, Maude Dixon, Anna Schaus.

Scene I. A Grove.

Music. (a) "Where is another sweet as my sweet," Tennyson

(b) "Now sinks the crimson petal," - Tennyson

Mrs. HOLT.

Scene II. The Court of Gama.

Music. "A song of Thanksgiving," - - - - Allitsen

MR. HOWARD.

Scene III. Room in the University.

Music. "Break, Diviner Light," - - - - Tennyson

MR. HOWARD AND MRS. HOLT.

Scene IV. School room.

Music. "There is no spring but you," - - - -

Mrs. HOLT.

Scene V. The same.

Music. (a) "Come into the garden Maud," - Tennyson

(b) "Crossing the bar," - - - - Tennyson

MR. HOWARD.

Scene VI. In the Wood.

Music. "It was a lover and his lass," - Shakespeare

MR. HOWARD AND MRS. HOLT.

Scene VII. Same as scene III.