

Thursday Ev.

Dear Aunt Mary,

Just a letter can't begin to tell you how pleased I am with the registry cards this week and I had them on the floor and waiting I surprise Charles, when he comes home from school. It certainly was dear of you to wish us to have them and I truly thank you

The sweetest little fellow. We may make the trip some time soon - all depending on the weather -

Many thanks again for the ones -

Sincerely
Janet -

from the bottom of my heart.
My Grandmother Reed has just written that she has a real old fashioned 4 poster bed for us - and some day I hope to have an old fashioned bed-room.
I am already beginning to collect things for it and when my dream is realized, the two rag-rugs or "Lion stiches" will be transferred to that room.

Charles Jr. is growing into a real Boy - and I can hardly realize he will soon pass out of his baby-hood. Charles & I wish you could see him as he is really My dearest sister Ellie. I am sending you these letters, because they are very rare, and because you know even less about Charles and Janet than I do. Perhaps you do know that Katherine lives with Joe and Clara, as Jim travels and is away so much. Katherine & Clara take turn every week keeping house, and whichever is housekeeper does everything so the other one is entirely free every other week. I think this is a very nice arrangement. Then Charles and Janet have the 3^d floor apartment, which I imagine is very cozy and comfortable, with their own kitchen - as Katherine is caring for Helen.

You see they are coming down to see us very soon, and I am so glad -

Dear Aunt Mary,

The two rag mats came today; and we are more than pleased with them. You need have no fear that there will be no place for them, for Janet had already assigned them to their particular spot when I came home from school this evening. We both thank you more than this little note can express.

I'll send you some snapshots of the baby just as Laid this very nice stairway. It is so nice that I shoved into much better. We hear that Charles continues to receive honors for his work of all kinds.

He is a very diligent student. When they were here Jae. said that out of a possible 5 A's, he got 4 A's and one B. He is President of his class and also President of his Society - I think he is a very fine boy - even if he did get married without inviting us to the wedding. Jae says it is wonderful how well Jae can manage with the baby. He can do anything for him, and likes to. He is naturally capable and efficient in many ways - and I guess it is a good thing for Janet soon as the prints are finished.

Janet sent the first lot home to her mother, and now we are waiting for some more to be finished.

I'm working just as hard this year as ever. Medical college is for you bring an easy life. However, it gets more interesting every year; and next year will be practically all clinical and hospital work.

Thank you again, Aunt Mary. Janet and I appreciate your gift very, very much.

Lovingly,
Charles.

was so inexperienced - let me happened to say when she was here the other day that Janett had just been graduated in June, and was married in July - and knew nothing of cooking or housekeeping. so I think it must have been pretty hard for her at first. The little picture of Charles Jr. with Mrs Reed holding him, she is a very nice looking lady. I have heard Clara say that she Mrs Reed - does not worry but accepts conditions as they are about every thing.
Well isn't it a good thing that the Hadleys & Leavis are at Newport. but what a hard time they have all had I do sincerely hope all these operations will be the means of much future comfort. I am so happy about New States Marie Harey has just sent Lillian some beautiful flowers. Tuesday
