

My dear Mrs. Belden -

The story came back this morning, with this note which I enclose. It is as I feared, too late for the Observer.

Will you please write a note to the Evangelist, and put in the envelope which I have left open. Also address the envelope, because I ~~was~~ ^{am} not quite sure of the address. I hope you may be able to get it off on this afternoon's mail -

Sincerely

Herb A. Hawley -

Saturday morning -

You need not save the Observer note.
