

PRESBYTERIAN MEMORIAL CHURCH
RESIDENCE, 57 EAST 54TH ST.
NEW YORK

Feb. 2.

My dear Mr. Belden:

You are not happy.
If you have a chance to go,
I would go from Bridgton.

The Hindus say that the croak is the wisest of reptiles: it never lets go with its mouth till it has laid hold with its tail.

I have waited because I wanted to speak with others, & see if I could know
of any place open for you.

I write now, lest you should think I had not received your letter, as it did not come.

I never was worth a cent
at getting churches for the dear good men who wanted them. I believe you would do admirably anywhere - I do not doubt your wife. I would put my hopes on your success anywhere with a fair chance, as quickly as upon that of any other one I know.

You may be sure that I will watch all I can for you,
I send word to you or about you,
the moment I have a chance.

Remember me most cor-dially to Mrs. Belden - I be sure you always believe me

Truly your friend:
Chas. S. Robinson -
