

and she says she has a picture that one of us made of you with your little blue cloak on. I am going to send Mamma a paper that Cousin Nellie brought me. for it tells about a new library built by a cousin of ours and I know she would be interested in it.

Lots of people ask after you and I tell them that you are such a big boy they wouldn't know you at all. They always speak of Evie as "Lina".

Cousin Nellie came before I had time to finish this letter, so I had to stop writing. - She brought us a lovely little box of Tingle's candies when she came. Haven't she nice of her?

There is a little boy here not much bigger than you who often goes and finds mushrooms and brings them in his cap to the cook and the cook gives them for his dinner. The little boy won't tell where he finds them but he gets more than any body else can find -

Today and yesterday I have been waiting on the table where Dr. and Mrs. Thayer, and Dr. and Mrs. Spaulding sit beside Miss Lily Kacey and Miss Doane and a few others.

This afternoon Eben and I are fixing two collanders and a felt for Mrs. Spaulding.
Tonight Eben has to wait on people that come to take supper.
She has to stay till long after eight o'clock. So give her we are pretty busy. Hit
