Friday Ev. 9 o'clock

Enclose Jane's letter as requested. Mary went to Summit at noon expecting to go to N.Y. tomorrow and remaining over Sunday. She is to go with Estelle to a concert tomorrow. I came here yesterday after our return from Bridgeville where Mary took Mrs. Jones to the Hutins for a fortnight visit Mrs. Riglow being one of the party. Mary had us all stop at Buttsville to dine at the Hotel with Mr Biglow, we had a very nice time altho Mary was very much disappointed that Edm Frobber could not accept of her invitation - and make one of the party, but they were expecting several gentlemen, heads of the Empire Store & I Co to dinner and with so little help she felt that she could not be spared, I expect to go up to Belleville tomorrow noon. I had several things to attend to here some letters to write & a bath to take so I did not go today, as I expected to - The box you sent I have saved for Fath's birthday and have labeled it from C. & M W.

Mary is expecting to come home on Monday and will give her a little party, perhaps,

Did you get something for Selden for + mas. I have always forgotten to ask you & I was afraid he was soon looked. I sent a little to Widely from here. I was glad Mary could get Fails for you so much cheaper than you expected. you must look very fine with all your new fittings, and at so little cost - it is quite satisfactory. no doubt

The Missions have gone to bed and the house is getting too quiet for me to feel comfortable. I will have to say good night, love to you and all. I cannot run, whether I thanked the children for the ~~to~~ was run. The cologne is delightful. Half of it leaked out, so I took it out of the box & it yet scents the whole room. which is very nice I think. With much love and a happy New Year to all off your Mother.

I am so glad you sent the

I wish you had a good, a grand good servant, I wish so every day - I wish so every time I do any work myself, & then I wish so every time I feel the comfort of Ethel's work.

Good night

Love
Ethel

My dear Ellie

▽ I enclose two letters -

I believe I'll ask you to send Mrs. S. back to me, or on to Jennie to send to me. I do hate to spare her dear letters -

Doesn't she write wonderfully.

Mary spent a couple of days part of each with me last week. She looks so handsome in her various new gowns.

I have run through seas of blood with my sunny ties mother & have nothing new to wear - absolutely nothing but what you have seen except a hat. I made yesterday -
