

Rec. this am
Sept 9th 07,

250 Bement Ave.,
West New Brighton, N. Y.
Sept 7, 1907.

Dear Nanny:-

Having arrived at the mature age of 19, I will celebrate by writing you a note.

Sister has just gone down to Aron, so I am lonesome, particularly as Papa is away over Sunday.

Sister has been taking me around to see her girl-friends. We have called on four, and had one up here. Two we took to the beach at different times.

Thank you very much indeed for your letter which reached me on my birthday.

As usual, I feel remarkably stupid, so won't inflict any more on you

Charles Scranton
Humphrey