

Dear Mamma, -

How are you today I wonder?

What do you do all the time. I suppose it is mostly visiting and here I suppose you ride a good deal, do you?

Yesterday was Communion and Prof King was very good as usual. After service Mrs Smith, Dr Smith's daughter and Mrs. Loveland's sister and the one who was in I much with us last summer came up and said she wanted to introduce us to a friend of her brother's who was visiting here, a Mr. Belding.
She wanted to see if we could trace any relationship. We told her our name was Beldin, but she said his gentleman's used to be spelt that way. We began talking to him and then some one took him away.
In the afternoon we were sur-presided to receive a call from here.

 At the dinner table we had quite a talk about this quaker man. He spoke and prayed in prayer meeting last week. Mrs. Dodd took quite a dislike to him and you know she tells her opinions of people quite freely. Some one said she thought he was a minister and Mrs.
 Dodd said if he was he was one without a charge. When she saw him coming in the afternoon she just stepped from the front.
 This quaker man used to live in New York State and he said he knew of Uncle Henry and I think Grandpa Belden and I think he said he was distantly related to Uncle Henry. He is a minister.
 We are not any ~~one~~ of us very favorably impressed with this would be relative, though I thought he spoke rather well in prayer meeting He said we should tell you he called especially to see you.

When Mrs. Miller is gone away Mrs.
Bunker wants Evulina to sleep over at his house with her. Evulina slept over there one night but she hates to disturb anybody. I guess next time one goes will have to take his place.

Please give my love to all the folks and don't forget your wife - Your very affectionate daughter, Edna.

Evulina doesn't approve of my signing my whole name as I did in my last letter.

After 5 days, return to THE CLIFTON SPRINGS SANITARIUM COMPANY, CLIFTON SPRINGS, N. Y.

Mrs. Ellen S. Belden.
