

Winter Hats, Are you supplied?
Lavinia skirts will be happy to get them as soon as the rush is done Unbleached skirts.

Carpet The red one made of ingrain carpet that was in this parlor, do you want it to rise not to store because it can be otherwise disposed of if you do not wish it so says Mary.
The skirts are soon commenced by the children in K, Susan seam in the middle we will finish them for you if you wish them I told Mary that there was no doubt as to their acceptability. The hares are so beautiful but alas! they are falling fast.

I suppose by two, we can and you furniture and tell what you want, Pictures and other things that we may not know about - perhaps there is nothing but that we do know. It is not worth while for you to go over the same things.

I believe the Carringtons all go to stay for the winter having "Autone" in the ansure to look after things I go to Josephs on Saturday and stay over Sunday - Then come down and stay with Mary. We have had such nice, lovely times together. The Stubbins will have the old room & the one opposite and other conveniences. I think it will be lovely for them & they are reliable so it will be well all around.

I think the group of the family while Jan was with you is fairly good.
Evelina looks rather sober I suppose she had too many things to care for & to think of. How I would love to see her and you all.

Do you know we went to a Miss Meeting at Acbury, did I tell you & found the young & attractive wife of the young minister there was Violet Bond, now Mrs Kennedy. He was much pleas'd with both of them & I hear that are much liked in the congregation.
Well, good bye my dear & to all the family. Why don't Sethen write to me?
I suppose he is too busy in school. am you Teddy?
