

I made J. M. some
"lace Cookies" & takes back, & Lellean made her some fine nut Candy, & I gave her a jar of peanut butter.
Each girl was to bring something for the spread. J. M.'s dress got done by Miss Rivers altho' I had to alter the neck. It is very pretty. Also Miss R. did her white dress - Shortened it - . . .

Dearest Aunt Ellen:- Arrived here safely this morning in time for my 7:30 class and I didn't even need to take a carriage from the station.
I did have such a perfectly lovely time in Oberlin. I will never forget it, and I do hope it didn't in corners.
From Mamma to Evie's Send! Ellen.

for a big spread is in the middle or at the end of the quarter but we had to have something to celebrate our reunion.

Last night on the Steeper, a woman slept opposite me, with two small children, one of ~~whom~~^{whom} cried periodically during the night. It didn't disturb me very much however as I felt so sorry for the poor mother. They had been travelling since Saturday and were pretty well tired out.

Well I must throw this down so the maid can mail it.

Thanking you again for the perfectly lovely time I had in Chelsea I am

Loveingly yours

Jeanne Marie Roe

Please excuse haste.
