

Caroline is here
at my house going to Exeter on Sun. May is coming
with me &
the little girl
big. with me
I only have your love
off Mass.
I received your note last evening & I will send you the comfortables. I do not remember seeing Mrs's old shawl after you left. You shall have the vase and the leather bag - I would be much pleased to be with you again. Thank you if Carrie goes to Ithaca after the holidays as she now expect to I may go with her there.

I think the letter with check in must have been carried. I was inquired at P.O., though since that I have seen one has a new P.M. and the other so incomplete I doubt that it might have been mislaid at any rate.
There is nothing there now of the kind. I was always very particular when any letter was sent to come to forward it, and I was sent Aunt Ellen in New I hope the check has not been used - I suppose the Cousin find out. I think it is useless to look further thought when I get back must write, will look things any letters that have been put aside more thoroughly If there is any thing you need that I can supply

make use of. Have you
cases - I might make some for you. Do not hesitate to tell me and I will do what I can.
Mary will supply the comfortables. We have not heard of Jimmy's arrival at L.V. but a few lines from Arkansas - Train ten hours late, Carrie is very well - and so are the children. We all enjoyed Jimmy's visit - although with the sickness she broke shoulder she did not get about as much as she would have otherwise, she was anxious to get home and just then it appeared as if there might be some sickness in Staysay on account of cholera and the danger seems past. In the present at least, we are expecting the Kluge, today.
