

Christmas Day

Dear Cousin William

The weather
and traveling is so bad every day that we despair of getting up to see you and your family, much to our regret.

I hope you are all very well; and we are very sorry that you are going
so far away from us,
although we have not seen much of you, yet it seemed as if we could do so at any time.

Mamma has purchased two little dolls for your little girls, and we hoped to bring <sup>them</sup> but as I am not at all well we are obliged to send.

Love to Wife and yourself, I remain yours very
sincerely
Annie J. Randall
