My dear Willie

us on Monday evening, I remembered that I had some of your money, which I was keeping for you, so I will send it this morning so that you may be in no doubt about it.

To send it in more convenient form, I add a little bit for your birthday, hoping you will have a very happy time on that memorable day - He spoke of you all last evening about the time of your arrival and what a happy time you would all have together, this evening when the school bell rang, I imagined you, going down and up the hill. I hope you will like your school and that this will be a happy & profitable winter to you. Aunt Mary told me about your "travels" yesterday and I hope you will remember this visit with me, as a pleasant one. Aunt Clara and Uncle Joe expect to go on a little trip to spend their wedding day - They will drive to you a couple of days, probably,

"William" was sent to bring in some eggs - but he was not as successful as our boy Willie. Aunt always says I wish Fred was here to hunt eggs.
yesterday P.M. and we feel quite lonely - but they were very happy at the prospect of being together once more - even you being here
