

Dear Willie,

The fern came today and I have planted it. How nice it was of you to think of getting it for me! I was so pleased & I don't know when any thing has pleased me so much. The little fern is just as pretty as can be and will be a fine addition to my room. Every time I look at it, I shall think of you.

That was a clever way to put it up.

Edea Harger came over Friday afternoon and staid until Saturday afternoon and when she left, I went down with her to Mrs. Rickacker's, to call. What a cute little house they have; haven't they?
We had a very good concert here Friday night given by Mr. Gray, our February Street trader and his wife, who is vice of the first precinct in Lawrence; as the title may imply; and I was glad if some other has that there would be something else would enjoy. That Mrs. Rogers, who was Miss Knelt was there and I met her. She going to call on her some day if ⁴ I can ever get around to it.

I wonder how you are getting along.
Write when you have time, please. I suppose you have written home. I note Maurine about your going the day after you left. She thinks it is a good plan. Maybe I will send you her letter. But will you return it to my pleasure? She thinks the same that I do about the advice you give.

I don't want to keep this dear business any longer than next year, though I do want to keep it then for the looks of the thing; but I don't like it and I do like plain teaching. And as to salary, that isn't enough bigger to say.

I wrote to Dr. Padeford

6
asking him if it would be worth while for him to apply for that sub. assistant position in England that Miss Greenle has now. It is going to be vacant at the end of the year, Miss Hauser says. He wrote me a very courteous note saying that they wanted a man and one with a doctorate if possible. He said, "Good brother was really? Did you feel him when you were away? When I wrote to thank him for his letter, I ~~talked~~ told him I had you & what I knew you had intended speaking to him about it, but would if he could hurry that I thought maybe you had not done so.

I have a lot more to talk to you about, but it is getting late and I must go to bed. Lots of love Mary.
