

Spring
from Illiana
to Millie

I shall have a good deal to tell you when I get home. I am collecting some specimens of different seeds &c. to show you & Millie, but I know you don't like long letters, and I am afraid if I write much more, you will leave my letters to read at some indefinite future time.

I trust darling, that you are a great comfort and joy to the family when you are home. It is not easy for any of us to be always good but we must "try, try again," if we don't at first succeed, try, try again, and if we keep much in the presence of Christ we grow to be like Him. Do you understand what that means?

I don't know just when I will be home - about the time summer school closes, I think. Will some one write me just when that is? -

If you are in any doubt about anything, just remember that you have a loving friend in Heaven to help you. Ask ^{for Him} them Everything.
