My dear Willie,

Every day since your last letter I have been intending to write to you. I feel so sorry you were not feeling well and hope you are by this time. I do hope your work is going well and that you are not getting discouraged. You don't get discouraged and worse than you have before do you?

We had a very interesting letter from Louisa yesterday.

Since I started this we have received your last letter. I hope you are better. We smiled when we read about the people you are with. Aunt Fannie said it will be a great thing for the girls in the house who have you here. They probably never saw such a large group! We said we knew you would be awfully nice to them though you are very particular about girls and don't have much use for any but the best. Aunt Fanny thinks you are so nice. So you begin with the
