

Wesfield O., Sept. 4, 1902.

Mr. Belden:

Mr. Breen was here and delivered the books.

He left one over at Mr. & Mrs. Curdy's and neither Mr. or Mrs. Curdy were at home, only their daughter Florence.

Mrs. Curdy brought the book back and was very mad about the way he left it, when neither she or he were at home.

She told us that "Florence told him she would not take the books until she saw her mother."

The reason it concerns us, they were to pay us the money. It was planned that way before Mr.

Burr left, and mother need the money and has not got time to sell the book but would like to have it settled immediately.

It ell to change the subject a little I wish you could be at our house Sunday, it is my birthday. You could come on Sat. night and stay until Mon. morn. Please let me know whether you can come or not.

Yours Respectfully

Emily Doubikina

"Damn the haste,
thats my sentiment."

Mr. Belden

Milford Center O.

Dear Sir:

As mother did not have time, she wanted me to write to you asking if you could possibly loan that money by Sept. 1st

The reason I am writing this I owe my music teacher some yet, and I got a letter from him, stating that he would like to have it by Sept 3rd

We was to a wedding last Wed. eve at Caledonia. Uncle Jesse Slaughter <sup>and</sup> his sister-in-law Fannie Slaughter were married.

There were none of us went up in a large livery buggy.

I hope you are having success
where you are.

I was up at Cardington
one afternoon to the institute.

How do you stand the warm weather?

Well I will have to close and get to washing dishes (the job I like).

Have you had any water
melon lately?

Well good bye

Yours Respectfully

Mr. Belden:

We have been keeping track of <sup>your</sup> board right along, and it has been 93 meals for yourself and 14 for Mr. Burr.

We thought your washing including all was worth 60¢.

Will you stop to see us on your way home? I think you might.

Eda Smith is going to move back to Ashley to-day.

One of Albert Bishop's dogs was buried last Sunday.

Our school does not begin until a week from Monday.

Concerning that book, mother thought she could not afford to take the best binding.

I got a letter from my aunt in England the other day. She also send me some lace.

The reason I put on the envelope to return if not received I thought perhaps you were located at a different place.

Yours Respectfully
